

Storm Data and Unusual Weather Phenomena - November 2015

Location	Date/Time	Deaths & Injuries	Property & Crop Dmg	Event Type and Details
TEXAS, South
HIDALGO COUNTY --- 13.0 ENE LA VILLA [26.34, -97.71], 22.8 ENE MERCEDES OLD REB ARP [26.31, -97.54], 30.4 NE LA VILLA [26.55, -97.52], 19.8 ENE HARGILL [26.55, -97.72]
	11/01/15 00:00 CST		25K	Flood (due to Heavy Rain)
	11/04/15 19:30 CST		0	Source: Emergency Manager

Hazardous high water conditions from heavy rainfall in October continued for eastern Willacy County, where high water remained on roadways, across agricultural fields, and in and around residences and businesses.

After nearly fourteen to eighteen inches of rainfall during the month of October, hazardous high water conditions continued through November 4th for eastern Willacy County, where high water remained on roadways, across agricultural fields, and in and around residences and businesses.